17 Are Killed When Train Strikes Bus At Crossing

ONTARIO, Calif., Oct. 3.—(AP)—A racing passenger train ripped into a U. S. Air Force bus at a crossing last night, killing 17 of the 22 occupants.

Eleven of the dead were military or civilian personnel from March Air Base; five were members of the Ontario Housing club—a service organization—the other was the chaperone, Mrs. Ruby McLaughlin, 45, mother of one of the dead girls, Juanita McLaughlin, 18.

Chief Deputy Coroner Edward P. Doyle said only five, including two sisters sitting in different parts of the bus, escaped alive. It was hours before officers could draw a coherent picture from survivors.

Acetylene torches finally cut away the mangled wreckage of the battered locomotive, and the train headed east more than four hours late.

The bus came from March Air Base, 40 miles east of here, and carried military and civilian personnel and girl friends homebound from a day at the beach. No one on the bus was unhurt, but no one was injured aboard the train, the Union Pacific's Pony Express eastbound to Chicago. The railroad said the train was traveling 70 miles an hour. Engineer Al Hall declared "I didn't see a thing" before the crash.

Nearly a mile of railroad right-of-way—some 30 miles east of Los Angeles—was strewn with bodies, some decapitated and many mangled.

Survivors said the party had been to Corona Del Mar and Long Beach on a special services outing. It had dropped off some girl friends of the air base personnel only a few minutes before.

A graphic eyewitness account came from O. K. Englund of La Crescenta, Calif., who was driving on U. S. Highway 60, which parallels the Union Pacific tracks. Englund said he saw the accident and has investigated many crashes.

"Suddenly," he said, "rocks began hitting by windshield and I drove into a big cloud of dust. I stopped. A fellow was staggering around, yelling 'My arm, my arm!' I saw one man lying against a post, his body sticking out from his body. There were pieces of bodies scattered everywhere. Pieces of the bus were scattered around, none as you couldn't lift them.

"I came upon a girl, naked from the waist up and bleeding badly. I helped lift a man half buried in the sand.

"I must have seen about 15 people lying around, and there were only five of them alive."

Some 80,000 anthracite (hard coal) diggers ended two weeks of idleness in Eastern Pennsylvania. And 22,000 soft coal diggers trooped back to mines in western states. Lewis said these miners' further inaction is "not now vital to the pending wage negotiations."

It's a morale booster for America's householders since virtually all of the coal mined by the returning 102,000 is used for home heating. Coal-using industry, however, must continue to bite into a 48-day supply of bituminous stockpiled above ground. There was no hint of a return to work order for the nation's industrial coal.

How much steel is available? About enough for four to six weeks. The double-barreled steel-coal strike—it killed 213,000 CIO steelworkers and nearly 400,000 soft coal miners—made big dents in America's economy.

If it continues another month the steel in weapons and sales is expected to reach a billion dollars. All told 53 basic steel plants and 50 iron ore mines in 27 states are shut down. That's 95 per cent of the nation's steel mills. A handful of companies, notably American Can Company with 15,000 workers in 28 plants, agreed to "union terms" for new strike threat hangs over industrial America.

The workers' union has 500,000 members working in 700 steel fabricating plants from coast to coast. The contracts start running out Oct. 15. And the union says the men will quit work unless management grants free pensions and free insurance.

Not before in the nation's history have coal miners and steel mills been struck together.

Philip Murray, CIO United Steelworkers President, called his men on the picket line. He wants complete national and social insurance. And he says his men will strike until they get them.

"We'll take nothing less," Murray said.

"Our cause is just. We will win."

Lewis didn't order any strike, but his men quit work anyway, on Sept. 19 after the bushy-browed, former chief announced suspension of payments from the mine workers' pension and welfare fund.

Missing Aviator Ends Up Riding Horse In Mexico

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—An Oklahoma City flier left here Thursday in a plane—and wound up riding a horse.

Lieut. James R. Alms left Oklahoma City on a routine navigational flight from Will Rogers field to Corpus Christi, Tex. He called his National Guard commander, Col. Maurice Marrs, from Oklahoma City, yesterday, from Tampico, Mexico.

The 24-year-old pilot had been the subject of a two-day search by army planes from El Paso, San Antonio and Oklahoma City.

Risner told Marrs he ran out of gas after passing Corpus Christi Thursday afternoon and landed on a sandy beach near the Gulf of Mexico. He learned from a group of Mexicans that Tampico was the nearest town some 150 miles away.

Risner told the Mexicans out of a horse and jogged all day Friday and Saturday and part of Sunday—150 miles to Tampico.

Risner told Marrs he would take a commercial plane to Brownsville and then make plans to pick up his own plane.

Sermon Cancelled By Czech Priest When Reds Appear

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A Roman Catholic priest promptly cancelled his sermon yesterday when four badge-wearing Communist "observers" entered his church.

Church authorities asserted the visit by the Communist observers was part of the government's campaign to keep priests under scrutiny for possible anti-state preachings.

The four observers pewed themselves in a front row pined in Sprilov district church and watched the remainder of the mass after the priest cancelled his sermon. The priest also ordered the customary collection omitted.

Almost 1,000,000 Steel and Coal Workers Idle In Labor Disputes

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—(AP)—One fifth of John L. Lewis coal miners were back in the pits today but nearly a million other steel and coal workers remained on strike for pension benefits.

There are hints the Federal government may step into the dispute.

One Killed And Four Injured In Railway Accident

AMES, Ia., Sept. 3.—(AP)—A rail coach filled with sleeping passengers was sheared open, killing one person and injuring four severely, when five cars of the westbound City of San Francisco streamliner left the rails here early today.

All of the injured were on a coach which left the rails and was ripped open as it skidded into a box car on a siding.

Justice Douglas Gravely Injured In Riding Mishap

YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Justice William O. Douglas, one of the leading Liberals of the U. S. supreme court, was injured gravely yesterday in the Cascade Mountains. He suffered 13 rib fractures and a punctured lung when his frightened horse fell and rolled on him.

His chances of full recovery, however, appeared excellent today. Doctors attending him at a Yakima hospital, said his condition was not critical.

The 50-year-old jurist responded well to blood transfusions and emergency treatment given on his arrival from the accident scene, 77 miles away.

But for several days, his doctors said, the danger of pneumonia will be acute.

He had planned to return to Washington, D. C., last night by plane.

Douglas had stopped to tighten his saddle cinch on a rocky trail, and was remounting when his horse became frightened. The rearing animal threw its rider, fell backward and rolled over him as they both slid down the steep, jagged slope 20 feet to a lower trail.

Nationalists Rap Russia For Move Recognizing Reds

Threat To Peace In Far East Seen By Chiang's Regime

CANTON, China, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Soviet recognition of the Chinese Communist regime is "not only an act of aggression against China but also a threat to peace and security of the Far East," Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh declared tonight.

Yeh summoned Vladimir Varakov, Soviet charge d'affaires, to the foreign office at 9:30 p. m. and read him a written statement containing this assertion.

The statement described Moscow's recognition of the Red "bogus regime" at Peking as the natural culmination of a long series of Soviet violations of the Chinese-Russian treaty of 1945 and further evidence of Soviet infringement on China's political independence and territorial integrity.

Yeh stated that Russia was not only leasing the 1945 treaty to pieces but was committing an act contrary to recognized principles of international law and justice.

"That the regime set up in Peking is Soviet-sponsored should now be clear to all the world," said the Nationalist foreign minister.

"It is a puppet regime, forced upon the people against their free will, and its ideology is alien to Chinese civilization and the Chinese pattern of life."

MOSCOW, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Russia has finally broken with the nationalist government in China to give the Communist north the new deal regime there. At the same time she accused the Western allies of trying to split Germany by setting up a separate government in their zones.

The recognition of Communist China was announced yesterday in a note to the premier of the Central People's government at Peking from Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Another Soviet note delivered to representatives of the three big Western powers in Moscow, rapped the creation of the West German state.

Proposed Sewerage Service Fee Will Be Considered By City Commission

Actions to be considered by the Corsicana city commissioners at their Tuesday meeting will include an ordinance assessing a sewerage service fee, and the final reading of an ordinance which permits additional water mains to be laid at the users' expense.

The sewerage service fee has been discussed by the mayor and city commissioners for the past three weeks. Judging from favorable comments received by them from Corsicana citizens, the commissioners feel the majority of the people favor the fee above a bond issue.

All money raised by the sewerage assessment will be used to repair the present sewerage lines and disposal plant, and for the construction of new sewerage lines in the city.

Expanded Social Security Legislation Given House

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The house rules committee today sent social security expansion legislation to the house under a rule barring any changes.

That means the house must accept the bill "as is" or turn it down. House debate probably will begin tomorrow. Rep. Doughton (D-NC), head of the ways and means committee which drafted the measure, predicted it would be brought up until next January.

The rules committee vote to bar amendments was 5 to 4. One member said five Democrats supported the rule and four Republicans opposed. The Republicans called the "this or nothing" procedure a "gag" rule.

Republicans already had accused Democratic leaders of a double-cross for bringing the legislation up at this time.

"There was a definite understanding," Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio) told a reporter, "that this legislation would not be brought up until next January."

Rep. Mason (R-Ill.) also said there was such an agreement in the house ways and means committee, which handled the social security bill.

Speaker Rayburn says the Democratic leadership never made any agreement to delay action until next year.

Whatever the house does, the senate plans no action until next year.

In the background is a hope among some lawmakers that house action on a broader old age pension program might help smooth out some of the labor disputes over pensions.

Devaluation Seen As Bringing More Imports Of Crude

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Devaluation of the British pound probably means more and cheaper foreign crude oil imports, the chairman of the National Petroleum Council said here today.

Walter S. Hallman, Pittsburgh, Pa., said this threat makes it even more imperative that imports be brought into line with domestic demand.

Hallman spoke at the opening session of the twentieth annual convention of the Independent Petroleum Association of America.

He criticized "American generosity" in cooperating in building and rebuilding European oil installations.

"As imports have mounted to new record levels our export markets have been lost to European countries whose facilities for producing and refining petroleum have been built with the money of the American taxpayer," he said.

"This is nothing more nor less than a threat of national suicide," Fred W. Shold, San Antonio, the outgoing IPAA president, touched on imports only briefly in his annual report.

He called for a united front against unrestricted imports was in evidence 20 years ago at the Association's first meeting.

As a result an excise tax was imposed that reduced imports more than 50 percent," he said.

The IPAA convention continues through tomorrow. New officers and directors were to be named this afternoon.

In a meeting held yesterday preliminary to the convention, J. Paul Jones, Bradford, Pa., was named president of the National Stripper Waste Association.

Wichita Falls, Texas, was chosen as the site for the annual convention.

V. C. Perini, Abilene, Texas, is the new first vice president, with G. F. Powers, Huntington, W. Va., second vice president, G. C. Bauer, Bradford, treasurer, and J. Tucker, Wichita Falls, secretary.

The social security bill would increase old age and survivors' insurance benefits materially. For instance, it would boost from $41 to $70 a month the pension for a man over 65, with a wife over 65, who has been in the program for 10 years at an average wage of $100 a month. If the monthly pay averaged $250, the pension would go up from $66 to $102.

In addition, the bill would add 11,000,000 persons to the 35,000,000 now covered by the pension system and gradually boost the taxes financing the program.

Senate Goes Into Big Battle Over Farm Legislation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The senate buckled down today to a politically hot issue that has crisscrossed party lines.

Mindful of the hay President Truman made in his election campaign last year, senators came to grips with the problem of how far the government should go in supporting farm prices.

Before them was a compromise bill worked out by a senate agriculture subcommittee under the guidance of Senator Anderson (D-NM) former secretary of agriculture.

It would set up a flexible system of government-backed price supports, ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity for most basic crops. The price props would come down as crop supplies went up.

(Partly is a price intended to give farmers a fair return on their crops in terms of what they have to buy.)

In principle, the Anderson bill is much like the Aiken law enacted by the Republican-controlled 80th congress last year to take effect next Jan. 1. But the Anderson measure underwrites farm prices at a somewhat higher level.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.), author of last year's act, is backing it. But some senators, both Democrat and Republican, want higher price supports for basic crops.

Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) chairman of the senate agriculture committee, said he plans to offer the program of Secretary of Agriculture Brannan as a substitute for the Anderson bill.

Winds In Excess Of 100 Miles Per Hour Reported

Many Areas Flooded By Rains Preceding Fierce Hurricane

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Oct. 3.—(AP)—A shift in direction of a 100-mile-an-hour hurricane eased tension here today but caused new warnings to be posted for the upper gulf coast from Galveston to Lake Charles, La.

Previously, the 250-mile section of the Texas coast from Corpus Christi to Galveston was warned by the U. S. weather bureau to prepare for winds tonight up to 100 miles an hour.

The bureau in a 1:30 p. m. (CST) advisory located the whirling storm 120 miles east of Brownsville, moving 15 to 18 miles per hour. It said its strongest winds within 25 miles of the center of the storm were more than 100 miles an hour.

"It will move far enough to the east of Corpus Christi so that winds will not reach hurricane force there," the advisory read.

The bureau also ordered storm warning east of Lake Charles to the mouth of the Mississippi. Gale winds and torrential rains preceded the hurricane in its movement toward the coast.

Many areas were flooded from the downpours. It was feared unharvested cotton and rice would be greatly damaged.

The main street of Port Lavaca, a town of about 5,000, was running five inches in water from the rain. Automobiles and trailers brought in hundreds of dwellers and vacationists from low coastal areas.

Merchants in many communities were boarding up their plate glass windows.

A navy hurricane hunting plane peered the center of the storm at 11 a. m. CST. It was 275 miles from Galveston. It estimated the storm's top velocity at 110 miles an hour.

Tides already were running high and torrential rains drenched the whole area. Beaches were eroded by rain had fallen at Galveston.

Corpus Christi, site of the big naval air training center, ordered schools closed. Thirty-five four-engine bombers took off in a rain squall for a safe haven at Goddard Field in San Angelo.

Merchants boarded up plate glass windows. Low land dwellers were ordered away from the coast by radio.

At 9:45 a. m. CST, the hurricane was centered about 121 miles east-southeast of Brownsville, on the extreme southern tip of the Texas coast.

The weather bureau said it was increasing in intensity as it moved eastward. It estimated the wind velocity had increased in intensity as it moved eastward. It estimated the wind velocity

A woman was shot to death. Another died in an automobile collision. A man killed himself by jumping from an oil derrick. And one was killed when a gasoline drum burst.

Three members of one family drowned in a fishing accident in Peyton creek near Bay City. They were Henry Lewis, Sr., 47; his son, Henry Lewis, Jr., 20, and Arthur Lewis, 45, brother of Henry Lewis, Sr.

Arthur and Henry Lewis Jr. were on the bank when a skiff sank. They drowned trying to save its occupants. Five of them were saved by other men.

Theodore V. Dziewas, 61, of San Antonio drowned Saturday night in Lake McQueeney, near Seguin, when his small outboard motorboat collided with a speedboat.

The body of an unidentified Latin-American was found Saturday in the Rio Grande near Sanderon. He was buried on the bank of the stream. A doctor said the man had been hit a terrific blow across the back, indicating he had met foul play, but the cause of death was undetermined.

Mrs. Louis Kohout was found shot to death in a Big Spring tourist court Saturday.

Miss Jo Ann Lee, 19, of Lubbock was fatally injured on an automobile collision there Sunday night. Three persons received minor injuries.

Lewis Twyman, 56, jumped from the top of an oil derrick at Kilgore and was killed Sunday. Justice of the Peace Claude Wilkins returned a suicide verdict.

Willie Jasper, Buffalo, 42, was killed at Snyder Saturday when a gasoline drum he had started to weld blew up. The drum had been cleaned, but fumes apparently had collected in it.

Darius Golemon Gets Death For Twitchell Slaying

KOUNTZE, Texas, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Darius Golemon, 28, faces death in the electric chair for the slaying of Mrs. Cloyce Twitchell of Beaumont.

A jury late Saturday night returned the death penalty in the Sept. 28, 1948, killing.

Alex Levenson earlier had been sentenced to die for the same slaying.

The state accused Golemon and Levenson of killing Mrs. Twitchell in Hardin County's Big Thicket after she gave them a ride out of Beaumont.

The Big Spring wasn't clear or dreamy yesterday. It stopped long ago—long after its sparkling water made an oasis.

But it flowed again for this celebration—a muddy water that was piped underground.

A religious service was held last night. An estimated 3,000 persons attended—including Grandstaff.

The celebration takes on a pioneer theme today. A huge street parade was set this afternoon. Gov. Allan Shivers is to take

Big Spring's Guest—

Life Term Convict Hears Cantata

BIG SPRING, Tex., Oct. 3.—(AP)—A life term convict stood in the wings of a stage yesterday and heard a way make my stay here one to be remembered.

"You need not worry about me while I am here," he said in a low, emotion-choked voice.

Shine Phillips, the druggist who wrote the cantata, introduced the convict to the crowd.

"We hope for further freedom for a man of such splendid talent, personality and background," Phillips said.

To most people, the highlight of the celebration was Grandstaff's cantata—composed in solitary, the time tapped on the wall of a cell.

"Any free man must be talented to transfer narrative prose into rhyme stanzas and set appropriate choral music to that text," said Dr. Roy Harris, composer in residence at Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

District Supervisors Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District: Morris Crawford, chairman; W. C. Pearce, vice-chairman; Thad Jones, secy.

Soil Conservation District News. Several cooperators of this district are harvesting King Ranch Bluestem seed. Charles Pearce, south of Kerens, harvested approximately 6 acres; R. W. George, Jr., Hicklet Conservation Group, 4 acres; and F. A. Boye, Corsicana, 2 acres. The seed will be planted back on each respective farm. C. Pearce and R. W. George, Jr. planted their Bluestem this spring and by using fertilizer they were able to produce a seed crop the first year. Boyd's Bluestem was planted in the spring of 1948, but due to dry weather and a poor stand, he did not get a seed crop last year.

Don Chandler, two miles southeast of Eureka, has increased his cotton yield 4 times in the past three years, by using phosphate and vetch in 1947, 1948, and 1949.

Chandler's yields on this 17-acre field were: 3 bales in 1946; 6 bales in 1947; 7½ bales in 1948; and 12 bales in 1949. The cover crops of vetch have increased the fertility, the water holding capacity of the soil helped control erosion and has improved the physical condition of the soil so it will plow easier.

L. B. Robinson, on Mrs. H. B. Jester's farm one mile northeast of Roane, has increased his cotton yield from one-third to one-half bale per acre. This increase in yields was done by constructing terraces last fall, planting cover crop of peas, and contour cultivation this spring. The land producing one-half bale per acre is eroded and poorer than the land next to it, which is producing one-third bale per acre, but did not have phosphate and peas planted in it.

A&P As Company Voices Defense"

As letters, telegrams and telephone calls continue to deluge stores and offices of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, protesting anti-trust efforts to dissolve the Company, the 90-year old food chain released this week a second full-page advertisement to 2000 newspapers across the country, including the Corsicana Daily Sun and Corsicana Semi-Weekly Light. A flood of endorsements of A&P came from housewives, farmers, manufacturers and labor leaders. According to the newsmen's message appearing under the headline "Why Do They Want To Put A&P Out of Business?" the Company reported: "An enormous number of customers are telling our Store Managers, and clerks that they want to continue to enjoy our low prices for quality foods; farmers and other suppliers are asking what they can do to preserve this efficient outlet for their products, and our 110,000 employees are asking us to protect their jobs and pensions. Labor leaders are wiring us their opposition to this threat to labor's living standards. If all of these people will be hurt, why then do the anti-trust lawyers want to put A&P out of business. The message quotes these lawyers as saying that A&P Food Stores "have regularly undersold competing retailers" and continued "we plead guilty" adding that for the past 90 years "we have constantly stepped up the efficiency of our operations in order to give our customers more and more good food for their money." The message also says that A&P's low prices prevented competitors from doing business, the advertisement pointed out that in the last ten years 275 rival food chains have grown up and some 30,000 individual grocers have gone into business. Moreover, while A&P had 11.6 percent of the national food market in 1939, it had only 6.4 percent in 1948, according to figures of the anti-trust lawyers themselves, said the advertisement. If the A&P should be compelled to quit, not only will food prices go up, but "the way will be cleared for the destruction of every other efficient, large-scale distributor," concluded the message, asking: "Is this in the public interest? Let your local store know your reaction to this move to put A and P stores out of business."

ANNUAL CLUB STEER AUCTION SALE HELD AT CORSICANA FAIR

By DON MORRISSEY
Daily Sun Staff

It took a host of the Hereford reserve champion to bring a top price for the champion club steers offered at the annual club steer sale of the Corsicana Fair Saturday. First sold for $1,000 a pound, the reserve champion, exhibited by Boyce Ross, Powell, was brought back into the auction ring by its buyer, B. L. Sanders of the First National bank, and then repurchased by Sanders for $3 cents. Sanders sold the steer would go to the IOOF Home.

Only three hogs were offered for sale and all were purchased by the Safeway Stores. The grand champion, shown by Sidney Harrison, Ferris, brought 35 cents per pound. Two pigs, shown by Bobby Ben Mayo, Kerens, sold for 35 cents. No lights on the hog were available.

Shirley Burnett, Powell, showed of the grand champion steer, didn't offer her calf for sale. She said she would show it at the State fair in Dallas.

Two of the 32 head of cattle offered for sale went back to their owners. The sale brought a total of $8,241 for the 36 head, and a total of $8,526.40, including the steer offered by its owners. Average price paid for the steers was $275.70. Average sale price for the steers was slightly over 30 cents per pound.

Fair officials were disappointed with the lower-than-usual prices paid for the prize stock, but explained the market was down and the bid prices were about 10 cents above market.

The most spirited bidding of the sale came when the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, through its manager, Herman Brown, bid in the 500-pound steer owned by Valda Dean Landon of Powell at 35 cents and when the reserve champion was brought back to the ring.

Second highest price of 40 cents was paid by Mrs. E. D. Cridle, Corsicana, for a 770-pound steer offered by Dorothy Grantham, Mildred, Mrs. Cridle said they'd butcher the steer, keep what they needed and give the rest to the IOOF Home.

Buyers at the sale were made an attractive offer by Keops of Texas. The frozen locker service offered free slaughtering service and six months free cold storage locker space for any animal purchased at the sale.

Sanders and the Neuhoff Packing Co., Dallas, were the big buyers. The packing company offered 27 cents for the 720-pound steer offered by Powell and then returned the animal to its owner after the sale.

George's Grill purchased the 500-pound steer offered by Jesse Raines, Frost, for 33 cents, and then resold it for 35 cents, offered by Wendle Woolaver, Italy, which brought 33 cents, went to the IOOF Home.

Others bought by Saunders included the following: A 210-pounder exhibited by Jim Bob Stocks, Italy, 33 cents; a 1,000-pounder, exhibited by George Landon, Powell, 31 cents; a 140-pounder shown by Jack Cusack, Italy, 34 cents; a 160-pounder offered by Bobby Gregory, Streetman, 30 cents; and a 900-pounder exhibited by Ferrell Smith, Italy, 31 cents.

eth Killcrease, Kerens, 31 cents; a 900-pounder exhibited by Billy Steel, Streetman, 31 cents; a 970-pounder shown by Aylon Crayford, Corsicana, 31 cents; a 980-pounder fed by Charles Dillard, Corsicana, 32 cents; and a 970-pounder brought in by George Landon, Powell, 31 cents.

Rediscover Your.... HOMETOWN

Little Janie is big enough now to read newspapers. So let's sit down with her and play a little game. Let's recall the year before Janie came, when people thought of a "jet" as just something on a gas range, and when some still considered it daring to take an airplane instead of a train. That was only eight or ten years ago. But my, how our home town has grown since then.

See the story about the new school—the one Janie will go to. That school didn't exist ten years ago. And here's a social note about some folks who live in the new section over by the way. That section was just an open field just a few years ago. Now we point it out to visitors as a showplace.

In the classified page there's an ad seeking more workers for the factory—the factory that everybody thought was going to become a white elephant. Bigger ads tell of wide selections of up-to-the-minute fashions and nationally famous products in our stores. Janie will laugh when you tell her that before she was born, we used to make nerve-jangling trips out of town to shop. No need to do that anymore.

LET'S REDISCOVER OUR HOME TOWN is the game we're suggesting you play with Janie and today's newspaper. For in pausing long enough to ponder this moving record of progress, perhaps you'll be able to realize and appreciate how our home town has become a happier and more satisfying place to live, work, shop—and raise a family.

And this is the product of our American Freedoms which lean so heavily on our access to unbiased information, served up without fear or favor by the Free American Press . . . so that you and I may exercise the most basic of all freedoms . . . the right to choose freely, to make up our minds in all matters, great or small. This is why: Where the Newspaper Goes, There Goes Freedom.

Is it merely an accident that those countries that have a free press, also have a free people? Most Americans realize it is more than coincidence. They have learned that the right of newspapers to seek out and publish the truth without fear of reprisal is their only opportunity to know the facts on which they may exercise their freedom of choice. This is the essence of true Democracy.

Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes this past decade . . . not only in the world and nation, but also in our hometown. And . . . more are on the way. Read your hometown newspapers with care — the advertising as well as the news columns — to discover the freedom of choices that promises you a happier, more abundant life, right here in your own home town.

Avoid Of Laxatives Constant Use

By W. P. BROWN
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

An easy and dangerous habit to acquire is that of taking laxatives. Constant use tends to reduce the natural process of digestion and bring about other physical disturbances. Digestive disorders are best treated by a doctor who may recommend beneficial changes in diet or exercise, or suggest a non-habit forming medicine that will temporarily aid elimination. Guard your digestive tract from harsh laxatives that were never intended for continuous use. Buy medication your doctor advises from a pharmacist who stocks fresh, potent, pure drugs.

Miss Thelma Ann Neal, a student enrolled in the second year class of Navarro Junior College, has received a tuition scholarship awarded for the fall semester.

She is a member of the Alpha Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma.

Miss Neal was selected because of her scholarship, ability and interest in higher education. She was graduated as the valedictorian of the class of 1948 from Blooming Grove High School.

During her high school years, she was school pianist, assistant librarian and member of the school annual staff. For four years she was a member of the school honor roll.

During her first year at NJC, Miss Neal worked in the college office, played in the band, worked on the annual staff, sang in the chorus and was a member of the Future Teachers club. She was a member of the honor roll both semesters.

The only daughter of Mrs. Tom Neal of the Blooming Grove community, Miss Neal is the first recipient of the Alpha Rho scholarship.

It is the plan of the Alpha Rho chapter to make this scholarship a yearly gift to some young woman who attends Navarro Junior college.

Bengals Offense Clicked Late In Second Quarter

By TALMADGE CANANT
Sun Sports Staff

The Corsicana Tigers had a test on Tiger Field Friday night, and came through with a 28-7 decision over a scrapping bunch of Paris Wildcats.

The Bengals officially came of age in their third contest of the season, which still left them undefeated.

Throughout the first quarter and half of the second one, the Tiger ability was weighed in the balance, and it was anybody's guess which way the weight would fall.

The turning point of the game came late in the second quarter, when Paris' drive to the Corsicana 20 hogged down before a stubborn line and the Tigers took over on downs. They started to pay off in the first touchdown of the game and tip the scales in Corsicana's favor for the rest of the contest.

In two tries Elbert Berry got a first down on the Tiger 32, Duane Nutt flipped an aerial to Johnny Crawford on the 38, and on the next play made another first on the Tiger 46. Nutt hit Bristow for another pass over center to the Paris 41, and Paris called time out, with only 1 1/2 seconds remaining in the first half.

Time was called, and Nutt took the pass from center, faked as if to run, halted and flipped a pass long over center to Walter Bond, who had outdistanced the Paris safety man. Bond took it on the run and went over untouched, then converted by placement as the half ended to give Corsicana a half-time advantage of 7-0.

From then on Corsicana gained momentum.

With 4 minutes gone in the third quarter, Corsicana scored again. Elbert Berry carried it over from the 1 after a long drive originating on the Corsicana 46, featuring Crawford's hard running and Bond blocking to the Paris 2 yard marker. Bond again converted — the second of four straight for the night.

Old play that has been a Tiger standby for years — the screen pass, paid off for the third Corsicana tally, also in the third quarter.

Corsicana had the ball on its own 38. Nutt faded deep and tossed to Johnny Crawford on the line of scrimmage, where a bevy of Tiger blockers awaited in front of him. Crawford swept down the field, with Crawford in their wake, and the hard-driving back went all the way. Bond again converted to make the score 21-0.

Paris started its scoring drive late in the third quarter, and tallied early in the fourth. It started on the Tiger 38, where Nutt's pass was intercepted by a fumble on the Corsicana 16 on four passes by Morrow and the old statue of liberty play.

A pass moved the ball to the Tiger 5, and it took three plays to move it to the 1. On fourth down Morrow plunged it over center, and Joe White converted. Score 21-7.

Corsicana threatened shortly after recovering the fumble on the visitors 10, only to lose it on the 8 on a fumble on the ensuing play. Paris was in a hole, however.

Blocking back Rayburn Matthews, who felt of Morrow's passes all night, intercepted one here, and went 25 yards to score, with the benefit of a beautiful block to clear the way of one opponent. Bond converted the fourth straight kick from placement.

The Tigers were on another drive deep into Paris territory as the game ended.

Paris was by far the best competition the Tigers have faced to date. The Tiger blocking failed to function properly in the early minutes of the game, and their defense was not quite up to par. The weight of condition and teamwork could make itself felt as time wore on.

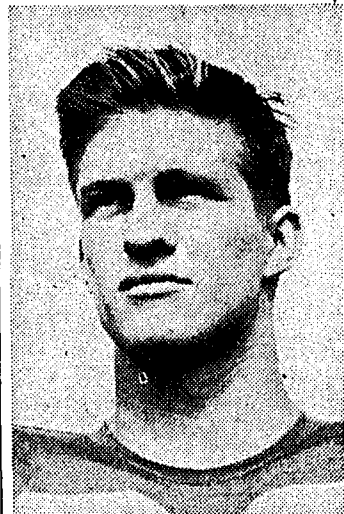

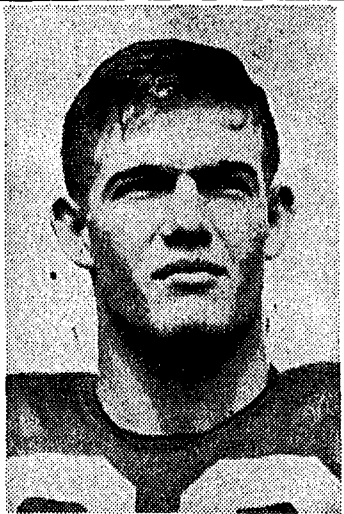

Hard-driving Johnny Crawford had one of his best nights, and Walter Bonds' point kicking and pass receiving were one of the bright spots of the contest. However, when the Tigers played together as a team, as they did most of the game, there were few on the Bengal eleven who did not deserve praise.

Big Howard Chapman strengthened his bid for all-district honors. He anchored his side of the line like a rock, and was in the Paris backfield repeatedly.

Credit should certainly go to the Tiger line, which rushed Morrow's passes so that he had time to throw long ones. As a result, Paris could complete only short stuff through the air, and then only intermittently.

Others whose work could be seen from the pressbox were Jimmy Wood in the line, who anchored one guard; Donald Moore, Woods' running mate who was through time and again; Orville Langston, a fine worker in the game, particularly on defense; Charles Bristow, Charles Bridges, Rayburn Mat-

Elbert Berry, hard-driving fullback, rammed over from the 1 for the second touchdown, climaxing a 54-yard Bengal drive.

Rayburn Matthews, right half, intercepted a Paris pass and returned it 25 yards for the final Tiger touchdown in the fourth period.

Hopson Sparks Locals To Second Consecutive Win

By TALMADGE CANANT

Navarro's bulldogs scored in a lightning-like thrust in the first two minutes to get the jump on Decatur in their non-conference grid tussle here Saturday night, and then added more later to down the visitors by a 19-0 final score.

Billy Hopson hit through center for 40 yards and a TD the first time Navarro got the ball, and the Bulldogs appeared headed for a big-scoring night.

Decatur, boasting a heavy, experienced ball club, had other ideas following the first score, and played Navarro on even terms for the remainder of the first half.

Opening the third quarter, however, the Bulldogs began to work as a well-oiled machine, and the scoreboard reflected two tallies in that period.

Navarro stamped itself definitely as a major contender for the title in north zone of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference, which, in effect, is the whole conference, since separation of the southern zone last year.

Saturday night was Hopson's night to shine, and he did just that, with the aid of a crew that time and again gave him just what he needed in the way of blocking.

Navarro Scores
The first time Navarro got the ball from scrimmage they were in possession on the Navarro 46. Bill Reed hit Danny McLeod with a 11 yard pass to the Decatur 40, and it was from there that Hopson got off on his scoring run through the middle. Red Earl's kick was wide and Navarro led, 6-0.

Play during the rest of the half was contained between the 35 yard lines, with both Navarro and Decatur failing to threaten. Penalties nullified two Bulldog drives here that might have paid off otherwise.

Decatur made most of its gaining attempts through the air, but an alert Navarro pass defense limited the visitors to a minimum of gain via that mode throughout the game.

Opening the second half, the visitors made their best bid of the night. They tried to get the leather on an exchange of punts. Three plays had failed to gain enough, and Decatur punted.

A 15 yard Navarro penalty for roughing the kicker gave Decatur new life and a first down on the home team's 35. Then Atherton, Decatur quarter, hit Clifford with a 13 yard pass to the Bulldog 17.

On the next play he hit his end with another aerial to the 8.

Start Drive
Here Navarro stiffened, and four consecutive tries at the line failed to gain enough yardage, and the white-clad Navarro boys took over on downs to institute their longest drive of the night.

Decatur drew a five yard penalty, and then Hopson hit the right side of the line, broke through and scamped to the Navarro 48. Red Earl got five at center, but an off-side penalty nullified it.

Hopson ran to the Decatur 48, and then Bill Reed nailed Danny McLeod with a pass on the Decatur 23.

Earl bulled center for 7 yards and Hopson made a first down on the visitors 7. He failed to gain on the next play, but Reed tossed to Campbell Woodman on the goal line on the next play, and the end stepped over for the score. Red Earl's kick was good, and Navarro led, 13-0.

It was only a few minutes later when Bobby Lawrence of Dawson gave Navarro the ball by intercepting Atherton's pass on the Decatur 35 to set up the third and final Navarro score. He snatched the pass out of the air and returned it to the Decatur 23 and the Bulldogs were within scoring distance again.

The stellar Navarro blocking shook Hopson loose again, this time the Decatur 14, and he took the ball on the next play to drive to the 7. For the third straight time he carried, this time to the 5. Here Reed passed

Good Attendance Fellowship Baptist

Fellowship Baptist Church met in regular service with Rev. Oble P. Barton, pastor, preaching both sermons. The sermon text for the morning was "Between The Strait of Two," and "The Setting Up of the Church," was chosen for the evening service.

Sunday School attendance was 127 and BTC was 80.

The evening message was followed by the Lord's Supper.—Reporter.

To End Leon Wylie over the Decatur goal for the final touchdown. Earl failed to convert, and the score stood at the final figure.

Decatur managed to hang on to the ball practically all of the fourth period, but a stubborn Navarro defense kept them contained within their own end of the field and drove the visitors back to their 2 yard line on an occasion.

The game ended with Decatur in possession on their own 7.

For the second week in succession, Driving Billy Hopson stole the ball-carrying show for Navarro with an exhibition of elusiveness that was marvelous to watch. The line offered holes through which to run, and he took advantage of them. Red Earl was good in the clutches, and Danny McLeod earned his slice for his offensive work.

In the Navarro line, Harold Prestige at guard was never better, and Don Granger and Orville Elliott provided scintillating defensive work.

Line Outwelled
Navarro's line, which has been outwelled in every ball game thus far this season, compares favorably with the one that helped carry the Bulldogs to state-wide prominence last year.

Bobby Lawrence, playing his first year with the Bulldogs, did some fine work at backing the line.

One more non-conference game is on the slate for this week before the Bulldogs open conference play against Allen Academy here on October 15. The locals go to Cisco on Thursday night.
